MCCARROLL SENTENCED TO 11 YEARS

Livingston- Ronald McCarroll, 51, of Holden, LA, pleaded no contest to possession of schedule II controlled dangerous substances, possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of product to falsify a drug screening, entering contraband in a Penal Facility, and two counts of possession with intent to distribute schedule controlled dangerous substances.

Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office deputies initiated a traffic stop with a vehicle involved with a narcotics investigation. One of the vehicle occupants was Ronald McCarroll. McCarroll was asked to exit the vehicle and deputies conducted a pat down. During the pat down a hypodermic needle with a clear liquid was found stuffed in his right sock. McCarroll was advised of his Miranda Rights. After questioning, McCarroll admitted that the clear liquid was methamphetamine. McCarroll was placed under arrest and escorted to a Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office vehicle. Deputies noticed that McCarroll had an odd walk and appeared to be attempting to conceal something. Deputies asked several times did he have anything concealed in his clothing anywhere. McCarroll stated that he did not and was transported to the Livingston Parish Detention Center.

Once at the detention center, McCarroll was brought into a room for a search. When McCarroll removed his pants a condom filled with liquid fell to the ground. McCarroll stated that it was urine so that he could falsify a drug screen at the doctor that day. He removed his right sock and a tin container was found inside containing a bag of methamphetamine. After the search was over, McCarroll was booked for additional charges. On this same day, LPSO Narcotics Detectives executed a narcotics search warrant at the residence of Ronald McCarroll. Detectives obtained the warrant after conducting a controlled purchase of methamphetamine from the residence.

During the search of the residence a glass "meth" smoking pipe, digital scales, and approximately .25 grams of methamphetamine, spoons with residue, a syringe with needles, small plastic bags, and two quantities of marijuana packaged individually.

In an unrelated incident, on September 27, 2015, Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office deputies were dispatched to Ronald McCarroll's address on George White Road in reference to a possible methamphetamine explosion. The complainant advised that her daughter was burned by the methamphetamine lab behind the given address. The lab was reported to be placed underneath the steps by the backdoor.

PERRIN SENTENCED FOR BURGLARIES AND DRUG CHARGES

Amite- Darryl Perrin Jr. of Ponchatoula, LA, pleaded no contest to two counts of simple burglary, possession of stolen property, creation/operation of a clandestine laboratory, possession of schedule II controlled dangerous substances, and simple burglary.

On November 8, 2012 a complainant advised Tangipahoa Sheriff's Office deputies that a tall, slim, white male, wearing blue jeans and a white hooded jacket went into her vehicle and advised that this had been caught on a surveillance camera.

She went on to tell deputies that the suspect took a leather bag from the seat and he went through the bag but took nothing. The suspect then shut the car door and went across the street to another residence. The complainant advised that she did not know this until she later looked at the camera then talked to the owners of the residence across the street; they advised nothing was missing from their residence. The complainant advised that she could provide the surveillance tape to authorities.

On December 18, 2012, detectives spoke with the complainant again who stated that the video surveillance captured the suspect walking on their property again and believed the suspect was Perrin. When detectives observed pictures from the incident that occurred on November 9, 2012 and video footage from the incident which occurred on December 16, 2012 they observed that it was in fact the same individual from both incidents. The following day detectives positively identified Darryl "DJ" Perrin Jr. and issued arrest warrants for Perrin for simple burglary. On January 7, 2013, Perrin was located at his residence and he was taken into custody. During questioning, Perrin went on to admit that he did commit the burglaries.

In an unrelated incident, on February 19, 2014, a burglary was reported at the Post Office Pizza located in Robert, LA. The owner of the business reported that his surveillance captured a white male breaking into the business and removing $400.00 in cash.

On February 20, 2014, a burglary was reported at Kids Haven Child Care located in Robert, LA. The owner stated someone entered the business and removed a fire safe that contained various paperwork, checks, and about $1,600.00 in cash.

MCCARROLL CONTINUED...

When deputies made contact with McCarroll, he gave consent for his residence to be searched. During the consensual search of the residence, chemicals were observed that are used to manufacture crystal methamphetamine along with hypodermic syringe/needle containing a clear liquid residue was observed in plain view on the nightstand in the bedroom and a spoon with liquid residue.

After the investigation concluded, McCarroll was summons for possession of drug paraphernalia.

On October 22, 2015, LPSO Detectives executed a narcotics related search warrant at the residence of Ronald McCarroll. Detectives obtained the search warrant after conducting a controlled purchase of schedule II controlled dangerous substances- methamphetamine from the residence of McCarroll.

When contact was made with McCarroll inside of the residence he was advised of his Miranda Rights. In McCarroll's bedroom, detectives located two bags of methamphetamine with loose meth which was being cut up and packaged. The nightstand where the meth was located is the same location detectives found meth being cut up on the previous search warrant.

At the conclusion of the search warrant McCarroll along with two others were transported to the Livingston Parish Detention Center where they were booked in on narcotic related charges. The narcotics were sent to the Louisiana State Police Crime Lab for chemical testing.

Ronald McCarroll was sentenced to 11 years with the department of corrections. Two years are to be served without the benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, said Perrilloux.

PERRIN CONTINUED...

The owner of Kids Haven Child care was contacted by Capitol One Bank in Lafayette stating that Darryl Perrin was attempting to cash one of the checks from the safe. Detectives made contact with the Lafayette Police Department who stated that Perrin had fled the scene prior to their arrival prior to their arrival but advised that he had left his identification and the check.

Later that day, detectives located Perrin in the parking lot of Delattes Recycling where Perrin was subsequently arrested for possession of drug paraphernalia. Perrin was then transported to the Tangipahoa Parish Hammond Substation where an audio recorded interview was conducted. Perrin confessed to committing both burglaries.

Perrin went on to admit at the Hammond substation that he along with the two individuals in the vehicle with him during the arrest purchased precursory materials for the manufacturing, production, and creation of clandestine laboratories. Perrin admitted the manufacturing process took place at Morse's residence, which is where he was living at the time. Morse provided written consent to search his property and further instructed investigators as to each piece of property suspected to be stolen.

A database that tracks pseudoephedrine purchases found Perrin to have numerous purchases of precursory material.

Darryl Perrin Jr. was sentenced to 10 years with the department of corrections, said Perrilloux.
